

State Energy Workforce Consortium Summary

Consortium Name Carolinas Energy Workforce Consortium

Number of Members approx 25

Consortium Chairs:

Consortium Title	Name	Company/ Organization	Email	Phone
CEWC	Nelson Peeler (Chair)	Duke Energy	Nelson.Peeler@duke-energy.com	704/382-2267
	Leilani Bush (Secretary)	Duke Energy	Leilani.bush@duke-energy.com

Committee Chairs: Please change the committee names to match your structure or add others

Committee Name	Chair Name	Company/ Organization	Email	Phone
Career Awareness/Education	Cheryl Cox	SC Technical College System	ccox@sctechsystem.com
Labor Market Analysis & Information	Manfred Emmrech	NC Employment Security Commission	Manfred.emmrich@ncesc.gov
Funding / Policy	Michael Turner	Shaw Power Group	michael.turner@shawgrp.com

Consortium Structure Description:

The consortium established three subcommittees based on member interest and feedback. The group will be responsible for identifying, developing and implementing specific actions.

1. Labor Market Analysis and Information
 - a. Current State
 - b. Trends
 - c. Hiring Plans
 - d. Untapped Labor Markets

2. Career Awareness/Education – broaden from just energy?
 - a. K16 – Career Academies, Career Fairs, Camps, Mentoring, Internships, Job Shadowing
 - b. Tech Schools – Curriculum Development, Co-op/Intern programs
 - c. Training/Development

3. Funding/Policy
 - a. Investigating funding sources
 - b. Grant-writing
 - c. Policy change/influence

Membership Structure/ Fees Description:

None.

Meeting Schedule Description:

Quarterly face-to-face meetings the first week of the month. These meetings will provide a forum to obtain subcommittee updates and discuss general consortium business. The consortium will meet via conference call every other month, with the understanding that it can be canceled if there are no pressing items to discuss.

Subcommittees Meetings Schedule – Each chair and its members will determine the method for them to conduct business. They will be responsible for providing status updates to the consortium at the quarterly meetings.