Upskilling the Energy Workforce Training

Course Description

EPRI's Training Steering Committee invites utility training professionals to this one-day professional development course. Attendees will learn about the latest strategies, modalities and materials available to simplify the development and deployment of quality utility training.

Individual Registrations

To see upcoming sessions and register for this course follow this link to EPRI |U's Learning Management System.
https://epri.csod.com/LMS/LoDetails/DetailsLo.aspx?loId=5ef598fc-69ef-4e10-b69b-522dd63f3e6c

Dates Offered

This one day course will be offered in two modalities. In Washington D.C. and via distance learning on October 9, 2019. Cost is $100 per person to register to encourage broad industry attendance.

Course Outline

Course Topics

What is CEWD and EPRI U
Upgrading to the Systematic Approach to Training
Tying Technical Trainings to Workforce Pipelines

Education and Training Technology
Cyber Security Training
Implementing Virtual and Augmented Reality Trainings

Learning Objectives

- Awareness of energy related resources available to support utility workforce development and training efforts.
- Apply best practices when it comes to utility efforts to use technology to deploy training and improve efficiency and effectiveness of utility worker training.
- Implement readymade resources to train utility workers on the latest cyber security threats.
- Implement utility focused augmented and virtual reality solutions.

Together...Shaping the Future of Electricity®